DAY 2 - 67km - 500m climb - BLD: We start our first day with an "easy" ride going gently up and down through some beautiful villages surrounded by rice paddy fields on the outskirts of Ubud, to continue through the magnificent temple of Taman Ayun in Mengwi, and finish in Tanah Lot, where we stop for our first night. Gently uphill out of town, we will hit the best and quietest backroads and head to the UNESCO heritage site of Jatiluwih, through some 20km of easy-ish climbing. After some great riding overlooking the vastest ricefields in SE Asia, and lots of pictures, we will head down towards hidden villages, small temples, quiet roads and great fun. Lunch on a typical restaurant overlooking the fields and then back on track to Ubud, where our tour will end.

4D/3N (2 days of cycling) - 200km - 2700m+

For those on a short trip to Bali, a medium difficulty tour for those who don't mind longer climbs and are looking for a more serious overall effort

DAY 2 - 87km - 1800m climb - BLD: We will leave Ubud through beautiful and quiet back roads, gently adapting to the road, the heat, and the climb that is initially easy. This warm up is followed by a long climb that leads us to the highest bridge of the island, Pelaga., where we will stop for a light lunch. After the break, we will constantly keep climbing until the highest point of Bali at 1715m above sea level. We will then descend toward the volcano caldera and ride overlooking the lake. Our day will end at a hotel overlooking the volcano, for a breathtaking view. All riders will then have the option to enjoy a hot springs bath, or to visit the local temple, one of the major ones in Bali.

DAY 3 - 115km - 900m climb - BLD: After check-out, we will start descending to leave the volcano behind, and head to the temple of Besakih, the major Hindu temple of the island, by a short but intense climb. After a short visit, the ride will continue downhill, until the town of Duda and Sibetan, overlooking lush ricefields, and great valleys. Some more descent until the ancient town of Karangasem, where we will hit the coast and ride along Candidasa and Padang Bai, where we will enjoy a nice lunch. After the break, be ready for some coastal road that will lead us to the town of Sukawati, home of the biggest market of the island, and then gently uphill back to Ubud.
